LOS ANGELES, Calif. - Oct. 26 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) -- MediQuin Credentialing Services, Inc. currently serves the medical community by providing credentialing and automated-application processing. By outsourcing, the company allows their clients to focus on successfully growing their practices.

MediQuin specializes in medical provider enrollment-form services. They manage and file documents for Hospital Privileging, IPA Applications, Government Enrollments, Health Plan Credentialing, Expirable Licenses, and CME maintenance, to help medical group practices and individual practitioners increase their productivity and profitability.

By using MediQuin's services, physicians and practitioners can: reduce processing time for managing multiple credentialing applications and updates; save money by reducing processing and administrative costs; and improve the accuracy of and quality of supplied information.

"We seek to provide the highest quality, competitive pricing, and delivery of services to establish long-term relationships with our clients," Manette Quinn, President, MediQuin explained.

Medical credentialing services are provided to meet the needs of physicians, practitioners, allied health professionals, hospitals and health plans nationwide. Pricing and services are customized to target individual client specifications and specific group requirements.

Clients can also rest assured that MediQuin's data management and processing technology utilizes state-of-the art security protection including the latest in firewalls and Thawte SSL (secure socket layer) encryption.

"Our goal is to establish structure and services for an open exchange of communication with our clients." Quinn explained. "Security is part of that open exchange."

MediQuin was formed by a group of experienced healthcare administrators, and is currently a leading provider of medical credentialing services. The company is trusted by physicians and medical practioners, nationwide.

MediQuin's administrative office is located in Irvine, Calif. Their professional staff has over 20 years of experience in medical credentialing services and consulting.

The company also has a well-respected and extensive track record in serving the medical community and outside networks and boasts a proven turn-around time of 5-7 business days, depending on the amount of processing.

"The mission of our MediQuin team is to reduce time and cost, while improving the quality of credentialing services for our clients," Quinn said.
